A DO-IT-YOURSELF RESOURCE GUIDE

Hi there!

By the time you read this, hundreds upon hundreds of hours worth of work will be scrunched into the tiny little package you hold in your hands. Tradition dictates that I should tell you how miserably tedious and maddening it's been putting this together, but I gotta admit...I'm addicted to this shit. I'm almost sad it's over. Admittedly, the crush of last minute entries was somewhat overwhelming. But on the whole, it's been really inspiring. If there was ever any doubt in my mind that the D.I.Y. community has a fighting chance against the ever growing culture/media machine, it's been dispelled by the thousands of people who sent in submissions. D.I.Y. is alive and well, and I've got the eyestrain to prove it.

I don't know if Tim / MRR is going to want to sponsor this again next year, but let me make the pitch anyway: SOMEONE HAS TO DO IT! All you need is a couple of computers, a few committed people and a whole lot of time. If you are seriously interested, start bugging Tim now. Or, if that doesn't work, call us. BUT DON'T LET IT DIE because every year, more and more of our culture is stolen and sold back to us by a handful of corporations. And that can't be good.

- Todd, Bleeding Heart Collective

Our bleeding heart felt thanks to all the considerate and outgoing people who enclosed their CDs, tapes, zines, photographs, funny notes, empathetic words, donations, bribes, beer money, and stickers galore. They really made a difference.

We also received a lot of notes from people asking questions, requesting copies for trade, offering to help, extending friendship, etc. We apologize, but for obvious reasons, we were not able to respond to these at the time and now they have been sucked into the 75 pound bag of processed mail. So please, if you wrote to us, write again and we will respond. You'll find our address on the back cover.

Much praise to the noble folks who collected all of the information for their scene. This year's BYOFL is more complete because of your initiative. Next year, please make sure that none of the bands/zines/etc. that you're listing are sending in their own entry. Once they're both typed in, it's hard for us to tell which one to use.

Ah! And this is our chance to publicly say, "Fuck you" to submissions with stupid-ass macho comments like "no chick singers" or "no faggy guitar solos" which we have bitterly included anyway. Your bands must be really bad.

Other scientifically proven tips for success:

Don't be afraid of commas and periods. You are not being graded on this, so don't worry about the rules, and just try to make sense. Remember, punctuation begins with punk.

abcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyz. These are the lower case letters of the alphabet. Please use them so the next folks can tell what is an adjective, what is a band name, and where words stop and start. The caps lock key can be your friend - and your enemy.

We suck. We carry cd's, vinyl, 7"er of love, skateboards and supplies, t-shirts, clothes, shoes, hats, whatever. We call ourselves an "alternative" record store because we want the MTV kids with money to keep us in business. We do consignments, and we can tell bands where to eat, where to play, and stuff like that. So shop here. Please. We quit our corporate jobs for this.

SEVEN UP'S

c/o Ron E. McNary, 2568 Beverly Dr., Washington, PA 15301. (412) 228-6214 (Ron)

Rhythm based anglo/indie pop. Noisy, yet angelic. Influenced by the late 80's Manchester scene, and American indie scene. We started this band due to, what we view, as a lack of relevance in music and with the hopes of stomping deuch bags like Eddie Vedder. Our debut single, "Roman Seventeen" is due out in late March.

This singer/songwriter guy composed an instrumental guitar symphony called "Ultime Atome" and put out the album by himself. It could be good to play that kind of music with a band.

GERMANY

BANDS

3RD STATEMENT

c/o Ingo Kewitz, Krampnitz Weg 77A, 14089 Berlin, Germany.

Probably the most various NYC HC influenced band in Germany. Very good musicians and vocalist. 3 live tracks on a CD comp, an EP and one song on another CD comp. Write!

CORROSIVE

c/o Chris Munch, Goldenbughstr. 6, 78048 Villingen, Germany.

Influences are mainly crust-hardcore punk bands. We have an 8-track EP out & we love conversation. Anyone who does zines, comps, etc., please write. We need distributors for our EP. Thanx.

GERM ATTACK

c/o Martin "the Bernd!" Schmeil, Gorgasring 47, 13599 Berlin, Germany. email:

mhs@fokus.gmd.de

Call it Pop punk or Melodicore, we do this shit since 1985 (our former name was Rattlesnakemen) and almost everyone says we're good. Lyrics are in English, from personal stuff to politics. We're not interested in trading, cuz it's too expensive for us, but if you want to put us on a compilation, distribute or license our stuff please get in touch. We have a bunch of releases out (tapes, EPs, CDs, etc...)

JARBONE

c/o Kai Spurling, Konrad Adenauer Str. 16, 46535 Dinslaken, Germany.

Some people might call it Jazzcore. EP and demo out.

LOST LYRICS

Melodic punk rock. Lots of records out.

MOVE ON

c/o Titus Gebel, Haydnstr. 21, 69245 Bammental, Germany.

I still don't know if this band is serious or not. Their first LP is a bit NYC HC influenced and it's a raw piece of power. Their 2nd release (CD only) is a very well produced HC record, which also features some decent hiphop, jazz, & metal elements. One of the best vocalists!

NOISE VACUUM

Chorinerstr. 85, 10119 Berlin, Germany. (030) 282-0639

1st release: 'Floor' 7" distorted, heavy & unhealthy. Other projects in the works. We also do mailorder: 7"s, 12"s, CDs, lots of American & Japanese stuff. We're looking for more! - Bands, labels, get in touch!! Especially from Japan!

PYOGENESIS

c/o Florian Schwarz, Hauptstrasse 57, 70771 Stetten, Germany. 0711-7979626

These gothic influenced, dark wave, death metal artists fuse brutality with violins and multi-layered vocals creating a heavy, melancholic sound. Pyogenesis would appeal to audiences of Paradise Lost and My Dying Bride.

QUEST FOR RESCUE

c/o Carsten Johannisbauer, Erich Kastner Str. 26, 40699 Erkrath, Germany.

They call it surfpunk, in fact, it's very melodic punkstuff. They have an EP and soon (April) will have a CD out on Blurr, which should be as good as the Germ Attack's CD.

SLICK

c/o Arne Gesemann, Mainzer Str. 13, 12053 Berlin, Germany.

Music that would work even if it was just the bassist and drummer. Additional feedback from the guitar. No real HC punk, no real noise. Some aggressive repetitive lines and nice melodies in between. 2 EPs, and a CD out soon.

STONED AGE

c/o Boris Lamour, Birkenbergstr. 79, 51379 Leverkusen, Germany.

A psycho-billy band that transformed themselves into punk rockers, this is the result. One million releases....

HAPPY BONE RECORDS

c/o the Bernd!, Gorgasring 47, 13599 Berlin, Germany. email: mhs@fokus.gmd.de
I put out records on a non-profit basis whenever I can afford it (this means I lose some money). I can't afford to trade (postage is too high & I already have more records than I can listen to!) I don't draw a line between styles. It's all punk, isn't it? I plan to do a WIRE tribute sampler.

c/o Manolo Ronzino, Via des Geneys 27, 10064 Pinerolo (Torino), Italy. 39-121-71434
A powerful blend of melodic HC, pop, metal background and rock. Well, it's actually catchier than it sounds here. We have a tape available for $4 postpaid.

PUBERTAS MORBEGNO

Ska-core band with a saxophonist, a clarinetist and a keyboard player. A mix of Operation Ivy, Mighty Mighty Bosstones, Bad Religion and the Dead Kennedys with a lot of personal influences. Funny but serious lyrics. 94 demo available now, self-produced 7" out in 95.

SIX MINUTE WAR MADNESS

c/o Circus Records, Via Consolata 5, 11100 Aosta, Italy. Tel. & Fax +39-165-262909
Pounding punk-raw band with a hard-noise sense, in the vein of Zippun. The singer seems to have some alcoholic attitudes. One single out on Circus and 4 tracks on a Circus punk-fuzz-garage CD compilation. Lyrics are in English. Write.

TEMPO ZERO

c/o Blu Bus, Via Consolata 5, 11100 Aosta, Italy. Tel. & Fax +39-165-262909
3 piece punk/emo band that would like to be Japanese, live in San Francisco and put out records on Dischord. But the sad reality is that they have two singles out on Blu Bus ("Mondo a parte" and a split with Nuvolablu), first LP/CD out sometime in the spring of '95. Write for gigs, interviews and frustrations.

THIS SIDE UP

c/o Dario Adamic, C.P. 15319, 00142 Roma Laurentino, Italy. 011 39 6 50796271
We play melodic HC/punk with some emo influence. People compare us mainly to the Californian bands, so I guess we don't sound like an Italian band very much. We'd love to hear from fanzines and to play around. Not looking for a label, but compilations are fine. No IRCs, we answer letters anyway.

TIMEBOMB

c/o Cristiano Suriano, L. go Rina Morelli 15, 00139 Rome, Italy.
Straightedge hardcore with death metal influences. Lyrics deal with political, social and environmental issues. We have a 7" out on S.O.A. Records, although it doesn't really represent our new sound, and an LP out soon on the same label.

WARFARE

c/o C.P. 114, 34170 Gorizia, Italy.

MISCELLANEOUS

GOVINDA-KRISHNA FOOD

VI. Studencka 13, Krakow, Poland.

As obscure as this is, it was nevertheless one of the best deals ever. In Poland last summer we found this place, at the time it's hours were: Mon-Fri 12-5. It's not a restaurant, but more of a 'this is what we got, eat it' establishment in the basement of a school. They have two things to choose from, in large or small. The large was 40,000 zlotys (abt. $2 USA), for an incredibly filling and healthy meal.

c/o Goran Muncan, Otona Zupancica 49/22, 11070, Novi Beograd, Yugoslavia. +381-11-699-739

Dark, noisy, heavy energetic guitar, melodic vocal, they used to sound like Nirvana in the past, but they changed... First demo in Dec. 94. Mellow.

NAPRED U PROSLOST

c/o Ljubanovic Nandor, Stevana Supljika 131/11, 26000, Pancevo, Yugoslavia.

Alternative to punk band, already 3 LPs out. They haven't received much attention from the media. Musically not unusual but specific, psychedelic, relatively boring, personal lyrics in native language.

- DISCOGRAPHY CD

The greatest threat to any government is voluntary non-participation. I view the government of the united states as a burden and threat to my freedoms, especially at this point in history. Democracy 1995 is a sham, a ritualized luxury that is quickly outliving its usefulness as a forum for actual political growth as would-be voters fail to show up, election day after election day. For a demo- graphic who makes much noise about the sad state of mainstream america (and is it ever sad), punks have a remarkably crappy track to issues that record for change with regard affect their own worlds. Oppression and fucking public is "not my problem" to the extent i feel that I have control over my life, but to quote the Minutemen, "what of the people who don't have what I've got?" Realize this, my brothers and sisters; truly "free" people have a history of taking that freedom for granted and neglecting their larger responsibility to spread the fruits of that freedom far and wide. The "as long as I'm okay" attitude is as american as apple pie. That said, we're a half pop half deep speedpunk band from northern cal and we need your support. mayday - 14 song CD for $7 ppd. missing music 235 alma st. palo alto ca 94301

READ THIS!

The Bleeding Heart Collective

The Bleeding Heart Collective compiled the information in this guide - so now you have to read about us.

Our collective formed in 1993 to organize benefits for political action groups too radical or too busy to utilize traditional funding sources. Our events have raised money and support for groups like ¡BAM! (The Bicycle Action Movement), the Kensington Welfare Rights Union, ACT UP Philadelphia (The AIDS Coalition to Unleash Power), Books Through Bars, and the Radical Faeries. Most of our events have been punk shows, but we've done a cabaret-type thing, and a dance party.

We all have our own reasons for being involved in the Collective, but agree on the importance of supporting the good work of dedicated activists. Organizing benefit shows is an easy way of being an activist if you have a busy schedule and can't commit to a long campaign or lots of meetings. Individual collective members are often involved in the groups that we choose to give money to, and as a collective we become familiar with the issues they deal with. The Do-It-Yourself philosophy is also very important to us. As an anarchist collective, we like to encourage self-sufficient, mutual aid-inspired, pro-fun, community building events. We look forward to a wonderful hybrid of d.i.y. and political action.

Please give us a call or drop us a line if you would like to do one of our shows. Bands and other performers can at least count on a good crowd, a place to stay, and yummy food to eat.

Books Through Bars

Books Through Bars will receive a good chunk of the proceeds from the Bleeding Heart's take of BYOFL, so you have to read about them, too. This is from one of their flyers.

The U.S. has the largest per capita prison population in the world. Strange as it may seem, capitalists regard prisons as a potential growth industry. With more lock-ups, Super-Max facilities, and pressure to impose mandatory sentencing, now more than ever we need to dismantle the current criminal injustice system and create alternatives.

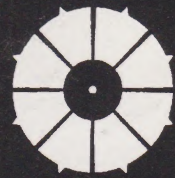

Books Through Bars looks toward a complete abolition of prisons everywhere. Prison routine is deliberately dehumanizing to inmates and access to books that might educate or stimulate prisoner's minds and hearts is severely limited. At Books Through Bars we donate quality books free of charge and hope to develop contacts inside of prison so that prisoners will again feel connected to the outside world.

Write to them c/o A Space, 4722 Baltimore Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19143 or call 215-569-2477 ext.5.
